

Oscar Guerra Ford
President Commissioner
Institute for Access to Public Information of the Federal District
Mexico City

Oscar Guerra Ford who has been nominated President Commissioner of the Institute for Access to Public Information of the Federal District in 2006 and reelected in 2008, obtained his Undergraduate and Master of Economics degree from the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) and the "Principles and techniques of fund raising" diploma from the Indiana University.

He has taught courses during 25 years in the Faculty of Economics of the National Autonomous University of Mexico as associate professor C.

Oscar Guerra Ford has been president of the Latin American and Caribbean Economic Association (LACEA), former president of the National College of Economists and has published widely in aspects of transparency and accountability.