

Professor Agnieszka Góra- Błaszczkowska

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

Some remarks about Polish law

SWPS

UNIVERSITY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

I. Presumption

Information is more valuable than money.
Those who have information have power.
The right to information is one of the most important components of human and civil rights.

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

II. Polish court system

a) common courts

b) administrative courts

c) The Supreme Court

d) The Supreme Administrative Court

e) The Constitutional Tribunal

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

III. Information on law made available by media

a) The role of the media in disseminating information about the law

b) Early education

c) Blogs

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

- IV. General information public available
  - a) Official websites of Ministry of Justice
  - b) Court's websites
  - c) Information about law made available by special institutions
  - d) Lawyers corporations actions
  - e) Student legal clinics
  - f) Administrative tax organs duties

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

V. Information about law provisions available for court's proceeding parties

a) Information about law made available by court

b) Free of charge legal support disseminate by lawyers corporations

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

VI. Interpretation of law provisions for professionals:

a) Introduction

b) Legal questions

c) Legal issues arising in courts recognizing remedies

d) Legal issues arising in the highest court

e) Application of art. 79 of the Polish Constitution

How to protect rights by informing about rights?

VII. Summary

There is high correlation between the financial standing of individuals and their possibility of defending their rights in Poland.

Information on law requires the use of language and vocabulary adapted to education and intellectual abilities of the recipient.

Professor Agnieszka Góra- Błaszczkowska

Thank you for your attention.
See you in Warsaw !